

Call for applicants: Training session Developing Strategy for Lobbying and Advocacy of Minority Interests in Kosovo

Brezovica, hotel Molika, May 3 – 6, 2008

Dear all,

It is our great pleasure to invite you to participate in the second and third training sessions on Developing Strategy for Lobbying and Advocacy of Minority Interests in Kosovo, which will take place on Brezovica Mountain, hotel „Molika“, between May 3 and 6, 2008.

The first module of the training (May 3 – 4, 2008) will be focused on Lobbying and Advocacy Techniques, while the second module (May 5 – 6, 2008) will cover the preparation of Strategies for Lobbying and Advocacy on Behalf of Minorities. The training sessions are being organized as a part of the project on “Lobbying and Advocacy for Future Sustainable Multiethnic Societies in Kosovo”. This project targets young people living in Kosovo to enable them to use lobbying and advocacy techniques to influence the improvement of overall multiethnic relations in Kosovo.

As a part of the same project, the first training session on “Mechanisms of Protection of Civic and Minority Rights in Kosovo” was held between April 4 - 6, 2008.

Accommodation, food and working materials will be provided by the organisers. Travel expenses will be covered up to 80% percent. Please send a completed application form no later than Monday 28th April 2008 to the e –mail address: office@ydprogramme.org.

The application form can be downloaded from our web site: www.ydprogramme.org.

The project is being implemented by the following organisations: Media Pulse Leposavic, ELSA Kosovska Mitrovica, Zenit – Prizren, Konak – Orahovac and The Youth Dialogue Program - Novi Sad

The project was supported by Freedom House, with funds provided by USAID.
