

Deutsch-Französisches Jugendwerk
Office franco-allemand pour la Jeunesse

New bridges for the Balkans: the activities of the French-German Youth Office and its partner organizations from Serbia, France and Germany

One-day conference on the 14th of September 2010 in the Goethe-Institute Belgrade

Program

09:30 h

Welcome to the conference by Mrs. Jutta Gehrig, Director of the Goethe-Institute Belgrade (t.b.c.)

09:45 – 10:15 h

„10 years South Eastern Europe Initiative of the French-German Youth Office“

Welcome and introduction by Mrs. Béatrice Angrand, General Secretary of the French-German Youth Office and / or

Dr. Eva Sabine Kuntz, General Secretary of the French-German Youth Office

10:15 – 11:00 h

„Five x five minutes“

Five project examples of German-French-Serbian exchange programs presented by partner organizations of the of the French-German Youth Office

Moderation: M. Jean-Luc Menu, Peuple et Culture, Paris

Milovan Savić , Volunteers' Centre of Vojvodina, Novi Sad

11 :00 – 11 :30 h

Break

11:30 – 12:45 h

Panel I

“Not a model but an inspiration?”

Experiences from the French-German cooperation

Discussion with

Dr. Eva Sabine Kuntz, General Secretary of the French-German Youth Office

and / or

Mrs. Béatrice Angrand, General Secretary of the French-German Youth Office

Mr. M. Jean-François Terral, French Ambassador, (t.b.c.)

Mr. Wolfram Maas, German Ambassador (t.b.c.)

12:45 – 14:30 h

Lunch break

14:30- 15 :45 h

Panel II

„Reconciliation and regional cooperation in the Balkans“

Input: Marijana Toma

„Impunity Watch“and member of the reconciliation initiative RECOM

Discussion

15:45- 16:15 h

Break

16:15 – 17:30 h

Panel III

„Civil society and the European integration“

Which role does the Serbian civil society have within the European integration of the region?

Božidar Đelić , Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Science and Technical Development, emissary for European integration (t.b.c.)

17:30 – 18:00

Synopsis and evaluation

Frank Morawietz, Special Emissary for the South Eastern Europe Initiative of the French-German Youth Office